22 hrs · Brussels ·

Did you know that one of the most beautiful art nouveau buildings Hôtel Frison in Brussels ☐☐ is owned by Indian Nupur Tron ☐☐? It was designed by iconic architect Victor Horta for his friend, Maurice Frison in 1894.

Nupur Tron fell in love with the building and has decided to renovate this classified treasure in it's original state. "I did not choose the house, but the house chose me" she says.

It has many elements that remind her of Indian culture, like the use of saffron and ochre shades, the peacock ☐, the wooden staircase,... It felt like destiny.

Her Foundation Frison Horta is an active bridge between East and West restoring, preserving and sustaining rich art & craft of a by-gone era.

Last December, an exhibition and conference were held in Mumbai on Victor Horta where Nupur Tron, Barbara Van der Wee and Werner Adriaenssens spoke about the architect and about the restoration project. With Consulate General of Belgium in Mumbai
