

His international projects have allowed him to find himself in a constant search for dialogue between photography and his own experiences. This essence is poignantly exhibited throughout his imagery and technique. Aja is able to capture the unique world of the subjects he photographs, showcasing them in their most intimate light.

Bernardo Aja is included in the Dictionary of Spanish Photographers and is an active member of the Mexico City Chronicle Council. He completed his studies in Fine Arts at the Los Angeles University in the United States. He is currently based in Mexico City.