

INDIAN EXPRESS "Blue de Jodhopur" Boucheron
Curated by Nupur Tron

If you can't travel to Paris to view Boucheron's new jewellery line, where it's being introduced during the haute couture season from July 6 to 9 in Place Vendome, its design story and artistic arrangements will certainly make you want to travel to Jodhpur. Inspired by the city, all the pieces are beautifully interpreted in the collection, says haute jewellery designer Nupur Tron, who is curating the exposition.

Study and research of three years has gone into the project, which is intended to be a global success. Tron, for one, really wants that to happen as she's spent sleepless nights making things happen. "I was in Jodhpur with the Boucheron's team in spring. Most of them came here for the first time and fell in love with the city and hospitality of the erstwhile king, HH Gaj Singh of Jodhpur. That's how the idea germinated." she says.

“Could you ever imagine marble with diamond in one necklace? Boucheron's made this one possible”
